STAT 13. [] Met with Mr. David Glick, Chief Counsel, House Foreign Operations and Government Information Subcommittee, concerning publication of the report of the committee on the use of the polygraph in the Federal Government. Mr. Glick indicated that although today is the regular committee meeting day, there was no meeting and that none have been scheduled for next week. It is noted that failure to even schedule a meeting increases the chance that publication of the report may go over until next year.

STAT 14. [] After receiving a personnel call from Congressman John D. Dingell (D., Mich.) concerning the employment application of [] Michigan. I called and advised him that an employment application had not been filed previously but that blank forms had been forwarded to her under today's date and a separate letter had gone forward to the Congressman advising him of this fact. The Congressman thanked me for the information and requested that he be kept advised of the progress of this application. He personally recommends this young lady as highly qualified by educational background for Agency employment.

STAT 15. [] Dr. Elsborg called saying he talked with General Roderick. He indicated that there appeared to be a misunderstanding. The query from Congressman Neftci on this matter had been placed with [] for handling who, in turn, asked Elsborg to check information relating to whether the recent coup attempt was a surprise for background information for [] personally. Consequently, his calls to the Agency were for this purpose and not for the purpose of getting information to be provided to the Congressman. In any event, Elsborg understands the Agency position as given to Captain Harris by General Carter that the Agency was not to be mentioned and the matter is being personally handled by [] Elsborg apologized that there had been any undue concern or misunderstanding. He indicated final action with the Congressman would be handled by [] in consultation with General Roderick.

STAT 16. [] Talked with Harry Osher and made arrangements to meet with him at ten o'clock tomorrow morning. ✓
